

SENSES WINES 2020 CHARDONNAY TENTH STOP

TENTH STOP

This wine was named as an homage to the town where we the founders grew up, Occidental served as the tenth stop on the North Pacific Coast Railroad.

WINE

“The 2020 Tenth Stop Chardonnay needs a lot of coaxing to reveal notes of grapefruit oil, green mango, and lime leaves with hints of sea spray, lime blossom, and wet pebbles. Medium to full-bodied, the palate is very tightly wound with bright citrusy flavors and loads of mineral sparks, finishing with epic length. This comes from Joe Dutton’s (of Dutton Ranch) house vineyard, which he calls Dutton Palms. This site was originally planted in 1978, and this Old Wente clone Chardonnay was planted in 1991. Occidental – the hometown of all three Senses owners – was the tenth stop on the railroad from San Francisco, hence the name.” – 97pts, Lisa Perrotti-Brown
