Senses Wines 2022 Chardonnay Tenth Stop

Tenth Stop

This wine was named as an homage to the town where we the founders grew up, Occidental served as the tenth stop on the North Pacific Coast Railroad.

Wine

"The name of the 2022 Chardonnay Tenth Stop refers to the hometown of founders Christopher, Max, and Myles, who grew up in Occidental, the town that served as the tenth stop on the North Pacific Coast Railroad from San Francisco. The wine pours a golden/yellow hue and offers a gorgeous nose on opening, exuding woven notes of honeydew melon, chive, wet stone, hazelnut, and grilled lemon. Full-bodied, it saturates the palate with a plush texture, white pepper, and notes of crème brûlée on the finish. Long on the palate, it's showing well at this stage, but it's another age-worthy wine from the Senses team to enjoy over the coming 12-15 years."
