

SENSES WINES 2023 PINOT NOIR SONOMA COAST

VINTAGE

No question about it, 2023 is a vintage for the decade. Cooler spring temperatures delayed bud break with veraison arriving as late as August in some vineyard sites. This shifted harvest later into the fall, requiring even more meticulous farming practices. While this made for a more challenging year, the prolonged growing season allowed for deep and complex flavors to develop. We can't believe we're saying this...2023 may best the incredible vintages of 2021 and 2022.

WINE

"Beautiful aromas of fresh Bing cherry, crushed cranberry, nori and flowers swirl and dance on the nose of this Pinot. The palate comes with waves of energetic acidity, plush tannin and flavors of black cherry, soy sauce, roses and cinnamon that dart and bounce along the finish."
